Building Blocks ...

“Listen! The wages of the labourers who mowed your fields, which you kept back by fraud, cry out, and the cries of the harvesters have reached the ears of the Lord of hosts.” (James 5: 4) Today’s second reading from the letter of James remind us how easily those who are migrants and refugees can sometimes be exploited and given the short end of the stick to satisfy those who feel entitled to treating others that way because of their wealth, status, or connections. James warns us that such a disregard for the marginalized and powerless will result in the harsh judgment of God upon those who think they can treat people any way that they want and get away with it.

September 29th has been designated by our church as World Day of Migrants and Refugees. Begun by St. Pius X in 1914, the day is a time to reflect on another element of our TODOS, TODOS, TODOS population: migrants and refugees. As Christians, we are called to safeguard the rights, dignity and opportunities for those fleeing corrupt government regimes, those whose lives or livelihoods are being threatened and have no option but to flee, irrespective of their religious affiliation or lack thereof. It is a reminder to us too of our own ancestors who may have sought to start a new life in a new country that offered them greater opportunity, equality, and freedom than their native lands. It’s an opportunity for us to make greater connections with the newcomers in our own parish and workplaces. It’s an opportunity for us to show others our Christian faith by putting into practice the corporal and spiritual works of mercy. It’s an opportunity to hear and listen to their stories and to assist them in adapting to the culture, way of life, and the blessings which Canada has to offer.

Like the Lord, we must stand on the side of the poor, the migrant, the refugee and embody the Good News which Jesus proclaimed by his own preferential option for the poor and marginalized. ---- Fr Sam.

God walks with His people: Message of Pope Francis

“God walks with His people”, is the title chosen by Pope Francis for his Message for the upcoming World Day of Migrants and Refugees (WDMR), celebrated this Sunday, September 29, 2024.

In this message, the Holy Father reminds us that all of us, God’s people, are migrants on this earth, on our way to the “true homeland”, the Kingdom of Heaven. Migrants are a contemporary icon of this people on a journey, of the Church on a journey, and at the same time, it is in them and in all our vulnerable brothers and sisters that we can encounter the Lord who walks with us.

<https://www.humandevlopment.va/en/news/2024/giornata-mondiale-migrante-e-rifugiato-2024-tema-messaggio-papa.html>

All of us are brothers and sisters! Let us pray to the Most High that, after this time of trial, there may no longer be “others”, but rather, a great “we”, rich in diversity.
